Auswide Bank provides direct bank feeds to Xero

- Direct feeds into XERO are now available
- Accurate, up-to-the minute financial information for SME customers and their advisers

Auswide Bank announced today that daily direct bank feeds into Xero online accounting software are now available.

Charlton Nevis, General Manager for Business Banking, said Auswide Bank customers can now connect their business banking accounts to Xero and then access their transaction data and balances in Xero on any device, anywhere and anytime.

“Every small business knows the importance of cash flow. To stay on top of the numbers means having access to accurate, up-to-the minute financial information. At Auswide Bank we also understand that your small businesses need effective financial planning and accounting to achieve growth and profitability.”

“With bank feeds set up in Xero, financial data on your Auswide Bank account flows in securely overnight – so you enjoy easy bank reconciliation and an accurate view of your financial situation. With the right numbers on hand, you can action other transactions such as invoicing, expense claims and payroll with confidence.”

“Your bookkeeper or accountant can also benefit from receiving a daily bank feed of your Auswide Bank account information. The service gives them an accurate view of your business information and helps enhance your collaboration with them on the management of your business.”
